THE STORY OF A ROBBERY.

Before Mr J. R. Wood, at the Magistracy this morning, two pawn brokers were charged with failing to detain and hand over to the police a certain person whom they could reasonably suspect to have stolen a dismond ring.

Detective Sergeant Appleton prosecuted on behalf of the police and Mr Shenton defended.

Mr Abraham stated that he was in the employ of Mesers S. J. David and Co., and the ring produced was his property. - It was in his drawer at the office and one morning when he went there he found that all the drawers in the office had been broken open. The front door had also been broken open.

The case was adjourned. -THE CHINA FIRE INSURANCE

CANTON NOTES.

(From Our Own Corresp niens) HOW DISTURBANCES ARE CREATED. CANTON, 26th February. At about 9 p.m. on Wednesday, 28th instr, some Chinese boatmen in the sorvice of the T.M. Customs struck and severely hurt a sampan woman; "Thorowas a great: fuse and noise and several rowdies who were in the crowd advised the woman not to return to her boat but to sleep at the door of the Custom House all night so that she could thus become an object of pity. The lawless ones then said that as men in the Customs service had committed this outrage the Customs House ought to be demolished and there is fittle doubt but that serious damage would have been done had not a detachment of the No. 8 Regiment not appeared on the scene. The would-be plunderers at once made off but four of thom were subsequently captured and are now awaiting trial. The injured woman was handed over to the care of the Red

OUTRAGE NEAR FATSHAN.

A money changer of Fatshan having made cosiderable gain in his business went with his wife and children to visit his ancestral village. The news of his journey came to the ears of a gang of thieves who followed him until the man had nearly reached his destination. They then attacked him and carried him off to a lonely spot on JARDINE, MATRESON & Co., Lo., the river bank where they proceeded to search him thinking that he had a large sum in his pessession. This not proving to be the case the robbers got into a rage and seizing the unfortunate man they flung him into the river where it is supposed he met his death.

AMOY NOTES.

(From Our Own Correspondent,) MATTERS ECCLESIASTICAL.

AMOY, February 25.

The Rev. J. Martin, of the C.M.S., Foochow, passed through Amoy last week on his way from Hongkong; having recently been married, and so occasion was taken to hold Episcopal Services in Union Church, Kulangsu, on Sunday, 20th Feb. at 11 a.m., Morning Prayer with sermon followed by Hely Communion.

MATTERS SCHOLASTIC. A grand Chinese function was held in Amoy on Thursday, 24th inst, when various Chinese Degrees were presented to a large number of scholars by the Chinese Gov. ernment represented by the Amoy Tactai. Several foreigners were present at the caremony, which included prostration; before the Tablet of Confucius by the successful students, while speeches were delivered by the Taotsi and other Mandarins, as well as by several foreigners in MATTERS MUNICIPAL.

An excellent new move of the Council is the institution of a system of signals in the case of fire upon the Amoy side. In the day-time two red flags B.B. will be. hoisted at the Custom House and also at the Rulangsu Signal Station. At night two signal rockets and blue lights will be fired at the Custom House and two red lamps will be hoisted at the Custom House, and two more at the Kulangsu Signal Station. In addition to this, as these signale might not be seen or heard by the Customs Staff residing on Kulangsu, or by residents having interests on the Amoy side, the Kulangsu Police Force, with the kind consent of the Church authorities, have undertaken, when these signals are seen at night to ring the bells of the Union Church and the London Mission Church as an alarm.

MATTERS HORTICULTURAL. It has been decided to hold the usual Vegetable and Flower Shows this Spring. The Wegetable Show will take place on Saturday March 12th, and the date of the Flower Show is left open at present. MATTERY NAVAL.

This week we have been favoured with a visit of the Japanese Fleet that has, so recently been in your waters in Hongkong. The Suma and the Akashi arrived on the 19th Feb., the Mikasa and the Hizen on the 22nd., and two more vessels have just come into Fort.

THE WEATH-R.

At last the rainy season has started, and not before it was needed, as we were in measurable distance of a water famine on Amoy and Kulangsu. Our wells have been low for some weeks, and many were absolutely dry. Others had water in them in the early morning, but were dry before midday. So none of us feel inclined to find fault with wet days, however uncomfortable they are, when we know they mean the addition to our water supply. As the population on the island of Kulangsu increases every year, the Municipal Council may be compelled to tackle this most vital question of a sufficient water supply before many more years pass away. We are entirely dependent upon surface wells at present, and many of these are owned by families living in Amoy.

SOME AUSTRALIANISMS.

THE study of the idioms of colloquial meech is very fascinating. It throws so many side-lights on the mental developments of the people usin them and gives the clue to many a philological puzzle; while also affording some indication of how the change in environment brings about changes in the speech of men and women sprung from the same parent stock. The Englishman who emigrates to Australia and who has fortified himself beforehand by reading all Australian fiction on which he could lay hands, is prepared to hear certain words and turns of expression which are not familiar to him in his native land. He expects to be known as a "new chum". He has a vague idea that in Australia the word "bush" does not stand for a shrub, and that to live on a "station" does not imply any connection with a railway or the police. He has impressed upon himself that in his adopted country a "squatter" is a man of wealth, and one to be respected, and not some ambitious tramp who has fenced in 'a few yards of land on some heath or common, and had the good fortune to remain undisturbed for 20 years. He feels that he knows all about "old man" kangaroos, and "larrykins", and "rounding up" cattle. CO. And yet when he settles down among Australians he will find there are many words and phrases by which he may betray his ignorance, and he will hear the meaning. strike him in this connection is that the word Home, with a capital H, which figures so largely in the talk of Englishmen in India and the Far East, is not used in Australia. They speak there of the Old Country, a significant 9.15 to 11.16 P.N. change. If the new arrival fails to find his way from the wharf to the post office at Sydney he must say that he got "busked" and he must allude to the dock labourers as "lumpers", and to the peditionary force is 1900.

SUGGESTED MARKET FOR ABERDEEN.

ment was presented at the meeting of the Sanitary Board this afternoon in which it was stated that the pupulations of the villages of Aberdeen and Aplichan were now sufficient to warrant action being taken to safeguard the meat supply and to recommend the construction of a small market and slaughter house at Aberdeen. The danger of allowing fish, poultry, meal and vegetables to be hawked round the streets where it was impossible to control their sale in any way constituted a strong reason to warrant the construction of the market forthwith.

The Hon. Registrar General minuted-I agree as to the slaughterhouse but as to the market I think Shaukiwan has a prior claim. The accommodation there is insufficient.

The Hon, Director of Public Works-It is intended to creet a small matched at Aberdeen for market purposes, the site for which has, however, to be reclaimed, and a new vote to be obtained before the work can be undertaken.

Great Improvement in Hongkong.

An important document was presented to the meeting of the Sanitary Board malarial diseases in the Hongkong Garrison. covering latter in which he expressed, thanks to the Board for the valuable help it had afforded in obtaining improvements in the condition of affairs at Shaukiwan.

In the course of the memorandum Col Bedford said he was now happy to state that the figures for the year 1909 showed a most gratifying comparison with those of sions for malarial disease fell from 515 in 1908 to 268 last year, for a diminution of practically half. Those figures compared most favourably with those of the year which hitherto carried the palm, for the smallest malarial admission rate in the prize whole history of the Garrison, viz. The admission rate for year was 196 per 1,000 of the strongth, whereas the rate for last year was only 138.4 per 1,00; or, taken at the present strength of the European Garrison (to which these figures only applied) they represent a decrease of more than 100 admissions for malarial diseases compared with the former lowest record in the history of this Command. Referring to the improvement in the cantenment at Leemun, Col. Bedford stated that the admission rate had fallen to 330 per 1,000 from 760 in 1908. This improvement was as startling as it was gratifying, for it must be remembered that the great improvements effected at Shaukiwan and its environs were not completed until six months of the year had passed. If they looked at lian and Snipe overhauled the Miranda. the chart appended they would see that there was a rising in Singapore, Ceylon, India, Mauritius and West Africa, whereas ibly. English Cup Football.

The cup ties of the second round attracted large crowds on Saturday, February 5th. The game at Stamford Bridge did not prove to be the attraction anticipated, but the Clubs concerned had little to complain of in sharing £2,000. The Spurs won and although by the only goal of the match played like winners from first to last. The game between the Lengue leaders for their respective divisions, Aston Villa and Derby County, was responsible for the largest crowd of the afternoon, 45,000 being present. Spectators did not get the value they evidently expected for their money, however, "as the Something requires to be done to put Villa scored a runaway victory, winning six goals to one. The defeat of the County may ultimately prove beneficial as they are now at liberty to put their whole Division. Bradford as a district had rather a rough time, as Park Avenue in to one and the City at home to Blackburn three. That West Ham mean business was evident by the heavy defeat then inflicted on Wolverhampton, overcoming them t-y no fewer than five goals to one. two London teams had a bad time of on the occasion of their visits northward. Falliam being defeated by Newcastle by four goals to nil and the Arsenal losing to Everton by five goals to nil. There were three drawn games, goal-less draws resulting between Southend and Q. P. Rangers, and Northampton and Notta Forrest, while two goals were divided between Bristol City and West Bromwich Albion.

English League Football. FIRST DIVISION.

Owing to the large number of teams in this division being otherwise engaged with effort into securing promotion to the First cup-ties, only two matches took place. Preston N. The results do not Rovers were deforted by the odd goal of in any way affect the positions on the League table. SECOND DIVISION.

The only match in this division was between Glossop and Loeds City and the former wen by two goals to one. SOUTHERN LEAGUE.

Brighton visited Reading and won by two goals to one, and the victory put them at the top of the Lengue table on goal average; but their position is none too secure, as Q. P. Rangers are a like number of points with two matches less played. Milwall were one too many for New Brompton, winning by two goals to one, and the only other home team to win was goals to two. Exetor defeated Norwich City by five goals to one, and Brentford won at Croydon by two goals to one. Reading are still in a hopeless condition at the bottom of the table, Croydon being next up, but the Commoners seem to be on the upward grade, having won two successive

TOO BAD.

The braggadedo of the common variety of husbands generally scotter or later falls before the keen insight that most women have of human nature in general and bragging husbands in particular. Oue Southern woman was married to such a man, who though invariably unsuccessful as a hunter, was continually beasting of his killinga.

As he was toturning home one evening after an all day hunting trip, it occurred to him that the usual arcompaniment of an empty gamebay was not in accordance with his oft boasted skill as a hunter, and that his wife would again have the joke on him; so he went to the market and purchased two brace of partridges.

As he entered the house he threw them on the table with great sclat and exclaimed. Well, you dear old doubter, you see that I am handler with the gun than you give me credit for being, after all; now don't Milady picked up the birds and examined | 155 them very circfully. As she looked up after the examination he said :

"Fine birds, my dear. Very fine birds

"Robert," responded the wife, turning up her nose, "you were only just in time it would have been everlastingly too late."

A proposal, said to have emanated from the Hawaiian board of missions, for at Noon. the establishment of a Japanese boarding school in Makiki, a residence district of protest in the form of resolutions adopted by a Makiki improvement club. The residents have placed themselves on record as objecting to any such institution and opposed to any sales of property to Japanese. There are several large Japanese tenements in the district, which white property owners are trying to get rid of. The Hawainn board has announced that it does not intend to locate its proposed school in Makiki.
